

Global Dossier

Immediate access to patent application dossiers, also known as “file wrappers”, from the world’s largest patent offices all in one place

NEW: now extended to authorities participating in the WIPO CASE initiative, such as the Canadian Intellectual Property Office and the WIPO IB itself

Why use Global Dossier?

- immediate access to critical business information when it becomes available
- mitigating your risk when your competitor has filed an application for a patent that could have an impact on your business
- ability to follow the patent applications through every step of the procedure until grant and to decide how to react
- advantage in business: confidence in knowing you have the most up-to-date information
